A BILL

To amend the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended.

The Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, is further amended by deletion of the present Section 4 of its title and substitution of the following language:

Officers and Employees

Section 4. In the performance of the functions of the Central Intelligence Agency, the Director is authorized to (a) exercise with respect to Officers and Employees of the Agency the authority available to the Secretary of State under the Foreign Service Act of 1946 as heretofore or hereafter amended or under any other provision of law pertaining specifically, or generally applicable to Foreign Service Officer, Foreign Service Reserve Officers, and Foreign Service Staff Officers and Employees; (b) adopt or apply to Officers and Employees of the Agency such provisions of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 as heretofore or hereafter amended as he determines to be appropriate in order to make available to such Officers and Employees the benefits, rights, privileges and allowances authorized thereunder; (c) exercise the authority available to the Secretary of State with respect to the establishment of a retirement and disability system under Title VIII of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 as heretofore or hereafter amended in order to establish a corresponding retirement and disability system for Agency Officers and Employees; and (d) prescribe regulations not inconsistent with applicable laws incident to the exercise of such authority.
